SAMANTHA MURRAY

June 2011

Born in Yorkshire, Sammy began performing at the age of seven in pantomime at the Grand, Leeds. She subsequently trained at the Royal ballet School and the Guildhall School of Music and Drama.

Her credits as assistant choreographer/assistant director include The Pirates of Penzance, Miss Saigon, Crazy For You and Me & My Girl all for Aarhus and Odense Theatre. The Three Musketeers for Joop Van Den Ende Productions Holland and the stage musical Tonight's The Night, assisting Stephen Mear. She was resident director on the national tour of Singin In The Rain in which she played Dolores.

More recently Sammy was assistant choreographer on Acorn Antiques at the Theatre Royal Haymarket, resident director on the show's national tour. She was choreographer on Victoria Wood's Christmas Television Special 2009 and on Ballet Shoes featuring Emma Watson. Next came the show Talent at the Menier Chocolate Factory, choreographer on Eric & Ernie, the hugely successful biopic telling the story of Morecombe and Wise.

Sammy is currently in pre production as assistant director to Victoria Wood on a new play which will be performed as part of the Manchester International Festival next month.
